Cyberlink Unison 1.1.226.0

Unison is a free download manager, network traffic monitor and simplifies the synchronization of files and folders. The function of Unison is to improve the standard solutions such as SmartPOP and Thunderbird to include not only email, newsgroups, folders, and RSS feeds but also music, videos, images, movies and other media files. Unison's user interface is quite unique, in that it is designed to make it easy to move between categories. In this way, you can easily perform various actions to any size of files and folders, and even to large quantities of data. The software can be used to monitor network traffic and to download and transfer data from various online sources, including Myspace, YouTube, Facebook, Flickr and more. The transmission is faster when you are using a large number of small files, such as newsgroups, RSS, POP3 e-mail or FTP. In addition, Unison is able to transfer large files and obtain the largest transfers in the shortest time. RecordOn iMedia 3.0 RecordOn is a fully featured digital recording software that comes with

What's New In?

The GetGo YouTube Downloader is a freeware that was created for Windows platform. The interface is very basic. You will be asked for the source URL, a saving location for the video and the download options (as soon as you select them they will be provided. If you have more than one video to download you will have to use the batch option instead.

Installation: After downloading, the installer will automatically start. After the installation is complete, the program will start automatically. Go to the “Preferences” window and make the required changes. Using: 1. Enter the URL of the video and press “Open”. 2. Set the destination folder and click on “Create Queue”. 3. If you want to start the download automatically when the video ends, click on the “Play when finished” button. 4. To obtain a.flv, a.wmv or a.avi file, select the output format from the drop-down list. 5. Enjoy the multimedia content on your device! 22.06.2016 GetGo Video Downloader GetGo Video Downloader is an application with a name that speaks for itself. With its help, you can enrich your multimedia collection by quickly and easily downloading online videos. Aside from being extremely easy to use, another of its advantages is related to the range of output formats that it supports. During the download process, the videos can be converted to MP4 (compatible with iPhones, iPods, PSP), AVI, WMV, FLV, WebM. Furthermore, if it's just the song or the soundtrack you are looking for, you can configure the application to extract the audio and save it locally in MP3 format. Designed with simplicity in mind, the main interface comprises all the options you need in a single window. Here, you can enter the URL of the input video, select the output saving location on your hard drive, choose the output type from a drop-down list and monitor the download progress. Unfortunately, batch operations are not supported and thus, download queues cannot be created. Although it might be somewhat inconvenient, the application only allows grabbing one video at a time. As far as the download speed is concerned, GetGo Video Downloader manages to provide impressing URL scanning times and saving a file on your computer doesn't take more than a few seconds. However, for larger videos, you can configure it to
