What's New In?

Markup Assist is now organized into two types, Markup and Design, so you can place applications where they make the most sense. SmartArt is smarter in AutoCAD LT 2019 for working with images and diagrams: AutoLISP: Get full documentation and tutorials for AutoLISP on Autodesk Idea. Save drawing time with enhanced layers. Add new layer styles and apply the styles without having to recreate the styles from scratch. When opening a new drawing, see all existing draw layers and history. When importing or exporting drawings to AutoCAD, you can preview the generated LISP code. You can now create custom layer styles for AutoCAD drawings using Autodesk Idea. In AutoCAD LT 2019, you can now right-click on a highlighted word in the source code, to quickly create a new layer based on that word. Importing CAD files to AutoCAD now has an AutoLISP interpreter that can interpret the contents of the file. AutoCAD LT and AutoCAD 2020 now supports generating LISP source code from customizable dialog boxes. Selecting a face or a drawing entity in AutoCAD LT allows you to quickly create a new layer with that entity. Convert your raster file to a vector drawing by converting a single layer. New LISP commands for easier application management: Search and Find: You can search for commands to quickly find and modify existing drawings. Advanced search allows you to find commands by name, location, line number, category, company name, author, or search term. Use IntelliKeys for ease of typing and faster navigation: Autodesk Idea will automatically create IntelliKeys for commands and features that you use most often. Find it: You can access the Find command from the View menu. Use a character or phrase as a search term: Use "l" as a search term in any AutoCAD app. It highlights all drawings that start with that letter. Use the Alt key to browse for a command under the search term. Use the IntelliKeys shortcut keys to navigate quickly. Use the Find: command to search for files or folders by name or content. Add commands to the Send To menu: You can quickly create commands to send a
